Life- Long Tools

Youths ages
12-18

Equipped to handle life's Challenges and Succeed

Youths with anger issues are more likely to

- Argue with parents
- Have problems at school
- Become involved with gangs
- Commit crimes
- Engage in negative social relationships
- Struggle with employers
- Not reach their full potential!

Family Service of Racine works with schools, churches, family court and other agencies to identify youths that engage in a twelve-week long strength-based program. They not only receive therapy to address their anger issues, they learn

- Communication
- Daily Living
- House and Money Management
- Self-Care
- Social Relationships
- Work and Study Skills
